

PERSONAL INFO

Residence: Argentina
Location: Asunción, Paraguay.
Birth Date: 03/07/2002

Greetings and blessings:
As a dedicated Full Stack Web Developer, I combine technical expertise with a flexible, remote-first lifestyle. My diverse skill set extends far beyond coding, encompassing professional experience in video editing, graphic design, and strategic AI content generation.
With a background in SM marketing, eCommerce, and audio production, I offer a unique, well-rounded perspective to every project. I excel at integrating functionality with high-quality visual aesthetics and data-driven marketing strategies, ensuring that every digital product I create delivers both strong impact and results.

JobHub

This is the final Project of Soy Henry's graduation that I and five of my classmates managed to do as a team. But more than that, JobHub is a place where people who need a service find it, and workers who offer their trade find their clients.
